INDUSTRIAL INVESTIGATION

On 10th June 1968 at approximately 10.30 AM in the office of Mr. D. P. Venkatesh, the Managing Director of the Mysore Ghee and Butter Ghee factory, Mysore, he was approached by Mr. S. R. Rao, a local businessman, who informed him that he had been engaged in the business of ghee and butter for the last 15 years and that he had recently started a new business of ghee and butter under his own name and that he wanted to know whether he could get a license for the same. He further informed him that he had a capital of Rs. 100,000/- and that he had a shop at No. 12, Main Road, Mysore.

Mr. D. P. Venkatesh informed him that he would have to go through a few formalities before he could issue him a license and that he would have to submit a sample of the ghee and butter to the Government Laboratory for analysis and that if it was found to be of good quality then he would issue him a license. He further informed him that he would have to pay a sum of Rs. 100/- as a stamp duty and that he would have to pay a sum of Rs. 10/- as a registration fee.

Mr. S. R. Rao agreed to do so and informed him that he would submit the samples and the payment of the fees as soon as possible and that he would come to the office again to collect the license.
